TORRACO NEWS.—The A. S. of E. Tobacco News, published at Winchester, has been received by THE OUTLOOK for a few days. It has interest to growers of tobacco.

$100 REWARD.—The destruction of tobacco beds in certain parts of the State has caused Gov. Willson to offer a reward of $100 for the apprehension and conviction of any person wilfully destroying the tobacco bed of another.

INCREASED STOCK.—I want the people of Bath county to inspect my stock of furniture when thinking of buying this spring. I have increased my furniture business until I can now supply any kind you want at the lowest prices, cash or credit. T. S. SHROUT.

DEATH.—A piece is vacant in our home. And the angels have him now. Where no pain or death is known. Come to cloud our darling's brow. The precious one from us is gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A piece is vacant in our home. That never can be filled. ADA.

UP WITH THE TIMES.—T. S. Shroat is always up with the times and, therefore, is ever ready with the latest up-to-date things that can be bought. He handled for his undertaking business this spring a new silver-gray floral car, rubber-tired; a new closed level glass, rubber-tired carriage which was built for the purpose of cost; a new undertaker's buggy; a new undertaker's wagon. With all these new vehicles added to what he already used in his undertaking business he is as well fixed as the undertakers of most large cities, which the people of this county do appreciate very much, for nothing is too nice or too good to use when our loved ones are called to their rest.

SPED FOR DIVORCE.—Mrs. Mary Miller Ayers is now at the home of her parents, Geo. E. Coleman and wife, at Mt. Sterling, and has brought suit for divorce against her husband, Col. Mott Ayers, of Walton, who was State Fire Marshal under Beckham's administration. Col. Ayers and his wife were divorced in the summer of 1904.

RAIN, SNOW, SUNSHINE.—Rainy, snowy, sunny, windy, stormy, spring weather, describes the weather now.

REPORTS CORRECTED.

From reports printed recently it would seem that the sale of the twenty-five per cent. of the pooled crops of 1906 and 1907 which was made by the Burley Society some time ago to the combination of independent buyers was not a success, but these reports are not indicated by the facts in the case. From time to time we saw accounts of large quantities thrown back on the hands of the Society for being in bad condition; at other times we heard that certain independent buyers had repudiated their contracts.

The Executive Committee of the Burley Society was in session here yesterday and the day before and say that none of these things happened.

Out of a total of about thirty-six thousand hogheads sold the independents less than two hundred and fifty were rejected on account of being farked. This is a very small proportion, much less than one per cent. The tobacco has been re-appraised at a lower price and will be taken by the original purchasers.

Some of the independents are a little slow about receiving and paying for their tobacco, but this is all. The Burley Tobacco Society is all right and their sales are all right.—Winchester Democrat.

IN MEMORY.—The death angel has again been in our midst and taken one of our greatest treasures, George W. Jones, little son of C. G. and L. A. Jones, who was born Oct. 7, 1901, and died March 31, 1909, of the blood disease of Berlin. The little one was a patient little sufferer. All that was in the power of his mother and his father, but to no avail.

Kind and loving friends and neighbors watched with the disquietude of the patients to the untimely end, which came all too soon.

Oh, how they will miss the little childish voice and those little feet they ran around with childish glee. But grieve not, dear ones, as those that have no more. Only to this, that your loss is another's gain, and remember that Christ said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." His little sister will sadly miss the close companionship of her little brother. Weep not for your beloved one, for he is not dead, but sleeps.

The little one was laid to rest at the Atchison graveyard. He was aged two years, five months and twelve days. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

Deaths has robbed us of our treasure.

And the angels have him now. Where no pain or death is known. Come to cloud our darling's brow. The precious one from us is gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A piece is vacant in our home. That never can be filled. ADA.

UP WITH THE TIMES.—T. S. Shroat is always up with the times and, therefore, is ever ready with the latest up-to-date things that can be bought. RAIN, SNOW, SUNSHINE.—Rainy, snowy, sunny, windy, stormy, spring weather, describes the weather now.

RAILROAD-BOND TROUBLES.

The old trouble about collecting a tax to pay off the bonds issued by Carter and Boyd counties in 1853 in aid of the Elizabethtown, Lexington and Big Sandy railroad is again in those counties, Elliott also being involved because of its territory originally belonging to Carter county, partly at least.

The bonds were sold, the road was never built, and the Federal Court gave judgment for the holders of the bonds on the ground that they were innocent purchasers.

It is quite likely that there was a swindle of the people of those counties and they now believing that at least are resisting the payment to their utmost.

J. W. Peck, a former newspaper man of Falmouth, has had the appointment as collector on the part of the bondholders for several years.

Bath county issued $150,000 in bonds for the same purpose and had to pay with accrued interest in the eighties. Some four hundred thousand dollars was Bath's payment.

There was a call by Peck on Gov. Wilson for troops to aid in the collection.

CHARGED WITH SEDUCTION.—Floyd Alexander was arrested at Hagerstown, Ind., by Deputy Sheriff A. N. Crooks and brought here Friday.

Sheriff Crooks presented a requisition from the Governor of Kentucky, which was honored by the Governor of Indiana. Alexander was arrested on charge of seducing Flora Myers, the 16-year-old daughter of Ed Myers, of the same place, and was released. Alexander gave $500 bail and was released.

The father of the girl has also brought suit against Alexander for $5,000 damages.

NEW CASH STORE.—Having secured part of the store-room occupied by P. A. Whiston (the old "Buckshot" saloon), the new cash store is being fitted up with the latest in the line of goods, hats and shoes, ladies' and children's.

Very strictly for cash and going the work myself I can save you money in your purchases of this line. Any patronage given me will be duly appreciated.

Very truly yours, L. D. BROTHER.

AT REDUCED PRICES.—I have already got in thirty-five new buggies since March 1, and have the new buggies I carried over from last fall. In order to make room for year-long to be shipped April 20 I will sell these fifteen buggies at $10 to $15 of what they sold at last season. So if you want to save money come in and get one before they are gone. I have plenty of Batterman & Luth, Columbus Buggy Co. and Kauffman buggies to select from at the lowest prices, cash or credit. T. S. SHROUT.

CITY SCHOOL TAX.—Owingsville City School tax is past due, and all owing this tax must call on and pay to S. D. Thompson, Treasurer, at once.

Positively a six per cent. penalty will be added May 1st, and we will proceed to advertise and collect by law. 38-41

By order of School Board, S. D. THOMPSON, TREAS.

TWO COLORED CITIZENS DEAD.—Two well-known old colored men of town died the past week: John Conner on Friday night, and Henry Vaughan on Saturday night. They were both well-beloved and had the respect of the community.

WHALEY-BARBER.—John Whaley, son of Tolliver Whaley and wife of this town, and Miss Fannie J. Barber, daughter of James Landon Barber and wife of Napoleon's Branch, were married Wednesday, March 24, by Elder Geo. W. Mills.

HE KNEW THE REASON.—A rather pompous looking deacon in a certain city church was asked to take charge of a class of boys during the absence of the regular teacher. While endeavoring to impress upon the young men the importance of living a Christian life the following question was propounded:

"Why do you want to be a Christian, boys?" the worthy dignitary asked, standing very erect and smiling down upon them.

"Because they don't know you," was the ready answer of a bright-eyed little boy, responding to the leading question with one equally guileless and winning. —Lippincott's Magazine.

SURPRISED THE MINISTER.

The new minister was making his first call and was waiting in the drawing room for mamma. Little sister and her elder were holding an earnest confab in the hall.

"You don't," said the elder in tense, small tones.

"You just see," said little sister proudly. And she danced off into the drawing room, an angelic figure in daintiest white, her big blue eyes innocent and confiding.

When mamma appeared, just as little sister danced out of the drawing room door again she thought the expression of the minister seemed rather curious and that he seemed to be making an effort to control it; also his manner seemed embarrassed and his call was very brief. The little maiden was immediately summoned and asked what she had talked about with the new minister.

"Nothing much," she faltered. "I tell me exactly what you said to him," demanded mamma.

"It—it wasn't anything much, just a little story Edith and I had made up to tell the minister's little girls. They were down there in the yard when you made us come up yesterday, and they told us such yams, mamma. You never heard such things. So we made up a story to tell them, and mamma told it to the minister, and I did."

"And what was it? Tell me what you said," mamma asked.

"It wasn't anything—anything—much," the small voice faltered. "I just told him that my papa came home last night as drunk as my father and he kicked my mamma over and jumped up and down on her stomach. And, mamma, the minister did look so funny and happy."

THE SPIRIT MOVED HIM.—An old negro preacher approached a southern physician and offered a scrap of paper.

"Please, sah, read dat," he said.

The physician found it to be an advertisement for a medicine, and he read it. "What do you have to say to me, uncle, none of it around here at all," he assured the old man.

DEATH IN VARIOUS FORMS.—A crank came running into the office and said a man had swallowed a two-foot rule and died by inches. The editor started out on one to learn further particulars of the death and, meeting Dr. Martin, told him about the case. He said that was nothing; that he had a patient once who swallowed a thermometer and died by degrees. A couple of bystanders just then chipped in. One of them said it reminded him of a fellow in Kansas who swallowed a pistol and went off easy. The other one said he had a friend who took a quart of applejack and died in good spirits.—Exchange.

"April Fool" For THE OUTLOOK and its readers.

Our friend Tom Warner, of Judy, is recovering from a case of smallpox. Smallpox has been in the Little Rock, Plum Bluff and "Pecked" neighborhoods since last spring when the family of Yell Burns had it and Little Rock people had it all summer and fall, and have ever consulted a physician. It got in the Judy vicinity last fall, and up till now it has been only a few cases that gave the patients any trouble; those of Allen Prell and Tom Warner. They will soon be cured. No more cases are reported.

AWKWARD.—Old Mr. Flaherty was a general favorite in the little town in which he lived. The doctor was away nearly all summer and did not hear of the patient's death. Soon after his return the doctor met Miss Flaherty and asked about the family, asking ending with "And how your father standing the intense heat?"

THE PEDESTRIAN.—A hard looking citizen who showed every indication of having made a night out of it and then some walked along Beacon street, in Boston, and sat down wearily upon one of the benches, thence with a heavy sigh, he arose and walked away. The owner of the house at a lower window watched him for some time as he sat with his head bowed, chin sunk upon his breast in an attitude of dejection, an expression of utter disgust upon his face. At last he opened his mouth and said in a husky and cantankerous voice:

"To hell mit the church! To hell mit the school! To hell mit every body—'cept Rosie!"

There was another long silence. Then suddenly he arose and said something as he walked away.

"To hell mit Rosie!"—Lippincott's.

And sometimes when opportunity knocks at a man's door he is so busy using his little hammer on his neighbors that he doesn't hear it.
